

Please delay the Monday vote on broadcast ownership until the rule changes are made public. It would not be fair to the American people to make such a serious decision without public debate. It is the FCC's duty to oppose such a rule change.